

Adventure Training

Course Costs

1. Adventure Training 2017/18:

£1,600 (+ £100 flights)

Included

- All meals, accommodation and transport within training
- Experienced leaders and teachers
- A week of Personal Development Training, including outdoor pursuits
- Course materials
- Administration costs
- DBS (Disclosure & Barring Service) background checks
- Food Hygiene certificate
- Overseas mission trip

Not Included

- Travel to and from Llanelli at the start and the end of training
- UK visas, insurance and background check costs for overseas participants
- Personal spending money
- Vaccinations, personal first aid kit and medication
- Reading list purchases
- All placements costs (living costs, flights, travel insurance, visa costs, vaccinations etc.)

Included in the course costs is a five day mission trip to North Africa. Please note that you are required to purchase your own flights (approx. £75-150) for this trip. Further information provided upon application.

2. Adventure Placements:

£2,000-£3,000

These costs vary greatly depending on your travel, food, accommodation and outdoor adventure qualification costs.

Please do not send any money for your Adventure Placement to World Horizons. We advise that you save it in a separate personal account. We will be asking you how much you have saved towards your placements and we will expect you to have the full amount either in your bank or definitely pledged before the placements begin.

Note to overseas participants regarding insurance:

You must purchase travel insurance for the entirety of the Adventure Training programme before you leave your country of residence. This insurance must be appropriate to cover both your training in Wales and your overseas placements. Training will include outdoor pursuits such as a short climb and abseil, kayaking with qualified instructors and some manual work. Insurance also needs to include full medical cover and repatriation. Please contact us if you have any questions about this.
