PLEASE NOTE: You will NOT need to bring your own bedding to the Centre for the Nations, it will be provided.

Special note for what to wear in and around the Centre for the Nations

- The Centre is constantly used by people of many different nationalities and backgrounds. Please feel free to express yourself in your choice of clothes but also please take care not to offend - e.g. for women – no low-cut tops or midriffs showing, and for men – please keep your shirts on.
- As the Centre is used for both residential and working purposes, you need to take care to be dressed when passing through communal areas, i.e. not wearing just a towel. Please bring either a dressing gown or an easy-to-wear outfit such as jogging trousers and t-shirt to wear on your way to and from the bathrooms, or when going downstairs to get a drink.
- You may find it useful to bring a pair of flip-flops for wearing indoors; however, they are not allowed in the kitchen area. You are welcome to bring slippers, but they should not be worn in lectures, meetings or the kitchen.
- There is a self-service laundry on site so you will be able to wash and dry your own clothes for a small fee.
